

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others and each of these attributes describe Jack Stuchl, who will be retiring from the state of South Dakota Department of Transportation, after serving over 51 years of service; and,

Whereas, Jack began his career as a materials technician with the Department of Transportation in the Aberdeen Region Materials Office on March 15, 1965; and,

Whereas, In the course of Jack's career, he has devoted his life to training and mentoring hundreds of engineers and technicians to ensure the safety and quality of South Dakota highways and bridges; and,

Whereas, Jack's hard work ethic has set high standards for all employees in the Department, and the people of South Dakota have been fortunate to receive the labors of a special individual who's devoted to making our state respected in the transportation field; and,

Whereas, Jack will retire on May 19, 2016, to spend more time with his family, and he will be missed by his friends and co-workers within the Department; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 19, 2016, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.
